DO YOU DESIRE A CPR OR FIRST AID MANUAL PRIOR TO CLASS? YES _____ NO _____

NOTE: American Heart Association manuals are highly recommended and student is more likely to retain and review their skills if the student owns a manual. Manuals can be borrowed from the police department. We do not sell the manuals; however, you can order them on the internet from www.worldpoint-ecc.com; www.amazon.com; and other sites.

The American Heart Association strongly promotes knowledge and proficiency in all AHA courses and has developed instructional materials for this purpose. Use of these materials in an educational course does not represent course sponsorship by the AHA. Any fees charged for such a course, except for a portion of fees needed for AHA course materials, do not represent income to the AHA.

By my signature and application, I attest that I am in suitable physical condition to engage in physical exertion and perform CPR and other exercises.
